

Withdrawal from Studies Policy Section 1 - Introduction

Purpose

(1) To provide a framework by which a registered student can withdraw from a programme and the College can withdraw a registered student from their programme.

Scope

To whom does the policy apply?

(2) This policy applies to all registered students and all Staff and Faculty who are involved in withdrawing a student from a programme of study.

In what situations does the policy apply?

- (3) This policy applies where a student seeks to voluntarily withdraw from a programme.
- (4) This policy applies where there is a College recommendation based on the criteria specified, made to the Registrar, that a student be withdrawn from a programme.

Who is responsible for implementing the policy?

(5) The withdrawal of a student from their programme is the responsibility of the Registrar, on recommendation from the College.

Definitions and Criteria

- (6) Withdrawal This is where a student ceases study on a programme after the end of the 'cooling-off' (change-of mind) period and before completion of the programme. There are two types of withdrawal, student-initiated where a student requests to permanently terminate their studies, or a College-initiated withdrawal.
- (7) The criteria for College-initiated withdrawal are as follows:
  - a. Non-Engagement Students who cease to attend or engage with their programme of studies for a period of four weeks may be deemed to have withdrawn from the programme, i.e. they have passively withdrawn through non-engagement. Non-engagement can be further defined as not meeting the minimum expected points of engagement for a programme, e.g. attendance at synchronous and/or non-synchronous lectures, tutorials, or accessing online content.
  - b. Non-payment of fees Students who fail to comply with the terms and conditions of their programme offer, and do not make the required payments to remain in good financial standing with the College.
